PRAYER & PRAISE

- YAWO: Praise God with Tim and Mel for the continued growth and strengthening of the faith groups. Pray for one group who is organising to do a presentation to their village chief to explain all that they have been learning about God. Tim and a local believer have asked three chiefs in villages where Robyn is teaching if they can visit every few months and teach from the Bible. Pray that there would be a positive response. Remember the whole team in Malawi on retreat this week that they will be refreshed and reenergised and open to God's guidance for their ministry together.
- YAO: Tobias and Heather return to Mozambique next Monday. Pray for them as they finalise last-minute details in preparation for their return. Pray also that their children will thrive in this time of transition. Remember Tobias as he completes his studies and pray that as they reconnect with their Yao friends new opportunities will arise to introduce them to Jesus.
- K PEOPLE: Thank God with Ken and Roz for the ways that they are able to develop positive relationships with the local community and share their faith. Praise God for the provision of language nurturers for the team and pray that their training next week will equip them to teach our team the local language. Remember David and Eliza as they arrive to join the team tomorrow and for Ben and Petra as they seek a few more people to join their partnership team before they can travel.
- IB PEOPLE: Remember Mick and Tara as they deepen connections within their community in South East Asia. Pray for wisdom as they witness God's love through the way they treat people and care for the environment where they live.
- PNG: Praise God with Geoff for the leaders in the Western Highlands Baptist Union who are being used by God to revitalise the church in the Baiyer-Lumusa area. Praise God particularly for the Sunday Schools that have been re-started (2000 children attending throughout the 111 local churches) and the establishment of a resource library for pastors – the majority of the 140 pastors have no training. Pray for Geoff as he assists them with these initiatives.
