PRAYER & PRAISE

- K PEOPLE: Give thanks for the opportunities that have slowly and steadily happened for Ken and Roz to share God's love in practical ways. As they continue to be invited to share in the lives of the local community pray that the K people will also invite Jesus into their life.
- K PEOPLE: Pray for candidates David and Eliza who are in the final stages of partnership development. Pray for them as they travel throughout Victoria sharing their story in churches and seeking to gain more supporters to reach their target before their anticipated departure this October to join the Silk Road team. Ask that God prompts the hearts of people to consider playing their part in reaching the K people with the Gospel message.
- ETHNIC THAI: Join with Dema and Carolyn who are praying for the members of their faith community in Thailand. Pray particularly for Mrs T who is experiencing difficulties at home. Pray for her son and husband that they may have a better understanding of faith through hearing Bible stories in the weekly meetings.
- HONG KONG: Remember Lindsay as he prepares for the new university academic year. Pray for guidance as the semester begins and for wisdom in balancing writing, teaching and preaching. Give thanks for the expansion in Jane's women's ministry and in their home church in Hong Kong, enabling them to increase their services. Pray these ministries will be effective in leading people to God and growing relationships in Christ.
- YAO: Pray for Scott and Bek as they partner with the local government in Massangulo to complete a school classroom. This new venture will provide many benefits to the community as well as increasing the visible work of Global Interaction. Please pray that all required meetings will take place in the next month and assist in building relationships with the local Yao people.
