

"Turn to me and be saved, all you ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no other."

- Isaiah 45:22

KENYA | PRAYING FOR PEACE

In December, militia from Islamic extremist group al-Shabab, stopped a bus in Mandera, near the Somali border. Upon boarding the bus, militants announced that Muslims had nothing to fear, but they would be killing Christians. The attack was foiled when Muslim man, Salah Farah, stood and said, "To kill them together or leave them alone." Only two people were killed, including Mr Farah, who died this month in hospital.

The Islamist group has frequently attacked buses near the border between Kenya and Somalia, tactically separating the Christians and Muslims before executing the Christians. Al-Shabab are based in Somalia but have become more active in Kenya, killing 148 people at a university in Garissa last year.

GOD AT WORK

While al-Shabab are attempting to wipe-out Christianity in the north and spread an anti-Christian message, this is not an attitude shared by local Muslims. Mr Farah's attitude and example is one that he doubtlessly shared with the next generation who he was teaching.

"People should live peacefully together," Mr Farah said. "We are brothers. It's only the religion that is the difference, so I ask my brother Muslims to take care of the Christians so that the Christians also take care of us... and let us help one another and let us live together peacefully."

PRAY WITH US

- Praise God the majority of the Islamic community in Northern Kenya is not influenced by extreme ideologies of hatred.
- Pray for Salah Farah's family, colleagues, friends and students who will all be grieving this loss. Pray for Christians to be bold and loving in sharing the gospel at this time.

Thank you.

I am the Vine you are the branches.
if you remain in me and I in you,
you will bear much fruit
apart from me you can do nothing.
