Next Week:

Identity -'I am a Priest'

1 Peter 2: 4-12

Welcome to Wentworthville Baptist Church.

Please feel free to join everyone in the Hall after the Service for morning tea and fellowship.

Maisie Horswell has long played the piano for the Easter Service at Uniting Care at Fleet Street North Parramatta. This year due to her incapacity, she asked would I stand in for her. This service is held in the dementia ward at Fleet Street. Not knowing where to go the Minister took me there in his car.

I confess to wondering just how the dementia patients would - or could - take part in an Easter Service.

These lovely people, many having lost the ability to know where they are or what is going on around them, filed into the room and took their places.

When I started to play there was an immediate brightening all around the room as there was recognition of the tunes. Without any words in front of them, they all began to sing and they knew the words, locked away in their minds and, we believe, reactivated by the Spirit as these dear people entered into worshipping God.

The Old Rugged Cross

When I survey the Wondrous Cross on which the Prince of Glory died

Amazing Grace

I come to the garden alone - and they all sang the last verse twice

It would probably be easy to by-pass dementia patients, assuming that their minds have been 'switched off' but the faithful people who conduct regular services at these homes all know from experience that the Spirit of God can break through any and all disabilities. While response from the patients varies and is inconsistent, there is recognition that the Spirit can minister to each and every one as they have particular and personal need.

John 14:26, "These things I have spoken to you, while abiding with you. "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I said to you."

As I was about to leave Edna Norman arrived to visit Peggy Palmer who lives there.

God bless them all and He surely does.

Ladies Dinner

I would like to thank everyone for their support of the Ladies Dinner especially the men and youth who set up, cooked, served, washed up and packed up all with a smile on their face. Also thanks to Greg Williams for setting up, running and packing up the audio visual for the night, all at short notice. Thanks to Tami's sister Skye and the accompanying guitarist for singing and playing during the dinner and for Jeremy's and Melanie's presentation on Hoa Stone from Vietnam. Also thanks to JO for giving the devotion and helping organise the event. It was all very much appreciated by the ladies, we had a wonderful time.

Statistics: 41 Ladies fed, 5Men fed, 19 Youth fed.

Profit to go to Hoa Stone $478.75 which at the current exchange rate equals 7 million nine hundred and eighty one thousand two hundred and eighty one point five Vietnamese Dong! 7,981,281.5. Now that's a lot of Dong!

PRAYER and PRAISE POINTS

OUR 'SHUT INS'

Johanna Boland, Bill Horswell, Elaine Bowey, Peggy Palmer, Keith Davis, Gwen Phillips, Bruce McNally & Val Williams.

Continue to pray for:

Maisie Horswell, Morgan Bishop, Elaine Gough, Bruce Gough, Marie Smith and Carmen Strudwick.

Rick's father recovering after a cycling accident.

Val Williams is now back in Crawford Lodge after rehab.

Graeme Mitchell is expected home after follow up surgery on Friday.

• Prayer & Praise

• Yawo

Praise God for the encouraging time that Tim and Mel are having in Australia. Pray for their final days here and their journey back to Malawi on 1 July. Pray for renewed vision, lots of energy and a smooth transition as they settle back and reconnect with their community groups and the Yawo believers.

• B people

This Saturday Phil and the NGO staff in South Asia will meet to study the Bible. The local B people who attend come from different cultural and spiritual backgrounds and their understanding of Jesus is, not surprisingly, shaped by their backgrounds. Pray that they will come with open minds to allow the Spirit to open their ears and eyes to what is relevant in their cultural setting. Pray that they will grow deeper and stronger in their faith.

• IB people

Praise God with Mick and Tara for the opportunity to celebrate the birth of Sophie with family. Pray for continued health for Tara and Sophie and for smooth processes as they make preparations to return to South East Asia at the end of this month.

• Cross-cultural Workers

Pray that the sessions at Strategic Mission Week, starting next Monday, will equip the cross-cultural workers further for their ministries. Pray that by doing the course together there will be opportunities to share with and learn from each other which will empower their work and their teams.

- Thank you for using Hotline this week to lift to God the prayer requests of our cross-cultural workers. Through our prayers we believe that there will be opportunities for our teams to deepen relationships and share the message of Jesus with least-reached people (identified in brackets). The page numbers refer to the Global Interaction Guide 2015 where you can find photos and more details on the workers, their team and the people group they live among.
