DON'T FORGET

CHRISTMAS DAY SERVICE AT 9.00am

- H PEOPLE: Remember R and B as they prepare a Christmas celebration for their H students. Pray that God will soften the hearts of the students to accept the invitation to be part of a Christmas event for the first time. Pray for R and B as they share the reason for the season. Pray for their Australian visas to be granted without issue so that they can spend time here for home assignment.
- LEBANON: Praise God for the six followers of Jesus who were baptized last month and pray for them to grow strong in their faith. Pray for Milard and Joyce as they lead a church and help people to find peace in God amidst the political instability of the country.
- ETHNIC THAI: In late December and into the New Year, Buddhist monks head into the mountains for spiritual retreats. This means that Paul and Cathy are unable to invite them to a Christmas celebration. Paul has encouraged those who are going to these retreats to take some stories of God and His promises to reflect upon. Pray that God will speak powerfully into the hearts and minds of their local friends so that they might come to know the true meaning of Christmas.
- IB PEOPLE: Praise God for Mrs Y who has decided to stay on as the Director of the Education Foundation, having taken a year break from other work to serve in this role. This was a large decision for her as she had to resign from her place of employment of over 15 years. She is a believer and excited by the vision and what God is doing in the community. Pray for her as she ministers and leads in developing the education foundation.
- B PEOPLE: Pray for protection for the B believers in South Asia and for encouragement as they continue to meet while Phil is on home assignment. Pray for God's leading for Morris as he discusses project plans and budgets with our partners.
- YAWO: Praise God with Jean-Claude and Joyce for the recent baptisms among their extended family. Pray for patience and encouragement as they raise a partnership team to support them to serve among the Yawo in Malawi. Pray that they will be able to connect and share their story with more people and churches over the coming months.
