PRAYER & PRAISE

- YAO: Join with Jonno and Heather giving glory to God. A series 'inexplicable' events occurred in Mozambique that led to the renewal of the team's current registration, permitting them to remain living in Mozambique and ministering among the Yao. Praise God that the lengthy process, while still continuing, is moving in the right direction and the team is able to remain focused and continues to see miracles take place in Yao communities. Jonno and Heather have also seen the power of prayer create breakthroughs with their personal visas.
- YAWO: Pray for Tim and Mel as they organise a camp for local expatriate children, from Christian and non-Christian families, with a focus on the children knowing who God made them to be. They are expecting 20 campers from the ages of 7-13, including their own children. Also Praise God for the opportunities Tim and Mel have had to pray with new Yawo believers, recently supporting and praying for a very ill young lady and her family, sharing about eternity with Christ, just hours before she passed away.
- ETHNIC THAI: Remember Dema and Carolyn as they host a leadership training conference this weekend for 10 leaders from the Ban Luang and Ban Sra faith communities. Pray the training will develop and nurture these leaders to develop their own distinctive ways of following Jesus.
- B PEOPLE: Pray for Phil who will be hosting many visitors from Australia this month. Pray for safety and good health for those travelling to South Asia and that it is an effective time of ministry among the B people. Pray also for Phil to have opportunities to visit with local B friends during Eid and share the Good News.
- B PEOPLE: Praise God that over 60 people have been attending a monthly meeting to study the Bible. Pray for blessings upon the activities our team is involved in and that the training centre continues to provide a secure and safe space to share the Gospel with the B people.
- KHMER: Pray for energy and strength for candidates Paul and Lydia who are adjusting to life as a family of four with their children Isaac and Violet. Pray they will see the blessings of a busy family life. Ask God to give them time to connect and rest whilst they balance raising partnership support with time with their young family.
- IB PEOPLE: Pray for confidence and insight for Mick and Tara as they find culturally appropriate ways to interact with the IB People. As their culture and language lessons progress, they have begun to share personal stories through dialogue about the similarities and differences between western and local culture. Pray for God's leading in these conversations where faith questions are raised during important cultural events and festivals in the IB community.
